 house where all with - in may safe - ly sleep. We will

A house that's built to remind us all
 Of how we are connected, whether great or small.
 A house of dignity, a house without shame,
 A house with walls bearing all our names.
 CHORUS

It seems so simple, it seems so sweet:
 A roof above you, enough food to eat.
 In this richest nation on this world of cares
 How much do we need to have enough to share?
